THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. The Chinese Communists were ordered to complete preparations for the Taiwan invasion before 15 July 1950, and were warned that, if Taiwan was not taken in July, their chance of an invasion was gone, because America is strengthening anti-Communist defenses in the Far East. The Communists were also told that America was intending to organize 100,000 to 150,000 Japanese volunteers to participate in the anti-Communist struggle on Taiwan. Early in July a second directive to the Chinese Communists ordered them to prepare for the Taiwan invasion during the latter part of July or early August.*
2. On 30 June the Canton Military Control Commission received from Peiping the following secret order:
 - a. Transfer 50,000 troops from the 2 and 4 Field Armies to Manchuria by the Hankow-Peiping railroad to join the Korean war.
 - b. Intensify military operations against the Nationalists and anti-Communist guerrillas in Kwangtung, and tighten political measures in trouble spots. Anti-Communist guerrillas in Kwangsi and Yunnan are to be exterminated within two months.
 - c. FENG Pai-chu's units are to remain on Hainan at their present posts. The 8 Army Group is to be shifted from posts in Fukien and along the Chekiang-Kiangsi railway to Kwangtung to strengthen defenses.
 - d. Crack units are to be sent to the Macao and Kowloon borders, especially Paoan (113-56, 22-32) Hsien, to establish observation lines with offensive
